Andrews FCU Tops Forbes' List of Best-In-State Credit Unions

Suitland, MD (July 12, 2018): In the first-ever ranking of Forbes Best-In-State Banks and Credit Unions, Andrews Federal Credit Union placed atop the list for Credit Unions in Washington, DC.

A total of 124 banks and 145 credit unions were given this distinction (approx. 2.4% of all U.S. financial institutions).

Final scores ranged from 40 to 95.4, with Andrews Federal Credit Union posting an overall rating of 85.75.

Forbes, in partnership with Statista, a market research firm, surveyed more than 25,000 participants regarding their opinions about their current and former banking relationships. Ratings were based on various criteria including trustworthiness, digital services, financial advice, branch services and general satisfaction.

"We're extremely honored to be recognized by Forbes as the top Credit Union in Washington, DC," said Jim Hayes, President and CEO of Andrews Federal Credit Union. "For the past 70 years, we have developed a reputation for delivering world class member service in our branches, as well as in the local communities we serve. Our members always come first, and I couldn't be more proud of the hard work each and every staff member contributes daily to help our members realize their financial dreams."

About Andrews Federal Credit Union
