Andrews Federal Helps Provide Lunch for Local Elementary School Students

Suitland, MD (April 28, 2017) –Andrews Federal Credit Union’s Enola Thaboun, Springfield Branch Manager, in partnership with Rotary NXT Club of West Springfield, recently volunteered at the Lorton Community Action Center (LCAC) for a service project helping assemble meal bags for students from Lynbrook Elementary in Springfield, Virginia.

The project helped provide much needed meals for children from low income families during the Fairfax County Public School’s spring break. Many of the students rely on the school’s cafeteria for both breakfast and lunch, so having a food bag during an extended school break will be appreciated and provide much needed nutrition.

“I always enjoy volunteering in the local community,” said Thaboun. “Initiatives such as this, where children are the beneficiaries, motivate me to want to seek out more opportunities

In addition to volunteering time, Andrews Federal also donated 60 packs of oatmeal, 4 dozen packs of ramen noodles and 72 granola bars.
