Andrews Federal Supports the Legacy Foundation

Suitland, MD (April 13, 2017): Andrews Federal's Christina Nixon, Burlington Branch Manager and Jennifer Fiore, Mt. Laurel Branch Manager, recently attended the Legacy Foundation's Monte Carlo Night held at The Merion in Cinnaminson, New Jersey.

Proceeds from the event benefit Legacy Treatment Services, with a portion dedicated to art and music therapy for children with developmental disabilities.

"It was a privilege to be a part of such a great event to help raise funds for a local non-profit," said Nixon.

About The Legacy Foundation

The Legacy Foundation raises awareness and funding for Legacy Treatment Services, a nonprofit behavioral health organization serving more than 15,000 people each year. Legacy Treatment Services operates over 50 programs across 14 New Jersey counties and throughout Delaware. Services include prevention programs, outpatient therapy and psychiatric services, substance abuse programs, emergency and crisis intervention services, therapeutic foster care, juvenile detention alternatives, residential programs, case management, developmental disability services, and a special education school.

Legacy Treatment Services programming aims to change the behavioral health and social service outcomes for people of all ages from surviving to thriving. To learn more about Legacy Treatment Services or The Legacy Foundation, please visit www.legacytreatment.org.
