Bartelle Serves as Keynote Speaker for U.S. Army Europe's Equal Opportunity Leaders Course

Suitland, MD (October 11, 2018): Andrews Federal Credit Union's Michael Bartelle, Vice President of Overseas Operations for, served as the keynote speaker for the U.S. Army Europe's semi-annual training for Equal Opportunity Advisors. The Equal Opportunity Leaders Course was a four-day event which focused the participants on equal opportunity and diversity management.

Additionally, the sessions addressed the skills required to advise commanders in the conduct of informal equal opportunity complaints, provide their respective commanders with climate assessments, preparation of special ethnic observances, and serve as the primary resource manager of equal opportunity matters within their units.

Bartelle was invited to relay senior leadership insights based on his previous experiences as a former Army Command Sergeant Major, as well as the similarities between DOD and corporate entities with regard to EO/EEO programs.

According to Sergeant First Class Shannon Wyatt, Equal Opportunity Advisor for the U.S. Army Garrison-Wiesbaden, "Mr. Bartelle added increased value to the session by providing a thought provoking, engaging and inspirational address."
